Select reason for Unforeseen Emergency:

- Deductible Medical Expenses not covered by insurance or other reimbursements
- Prevent foreclosure of or eviction from principal residence
- Funeral expenses for immediate family members
- Casualty loss of principal address

An unforeseeable emergency is defined as a severe financial hardship of the Participant resulting from (a) an illness or accident of the Participant, the Participant's spouse, or the Participant's dependent (as defined in Section 152(a)); (b) loss of the Participant's property due to casualty (including the need to rebuild a home following damage to a home not otherwise covered by homeowner's insurance, e.g. as a result of a natural disaster); (c) the need to pay for the funeral expenses of the Participant's spouse or dependent (as defined in section 152(a) of the Code); (d) or other similar extraordinary and unforeseeable circumstances arising as a result of events beyond the control of the Participant. Neither the purchase of a home nor the payment of college tuition is an unforeseeable emergency.

A distribution on account of unforeseeable emergency may not be made to the extent that such emergency is or may be relieved through reimbursement or compensation from insurance or otherwise, by liquidation of the Participant's assets, to the extent the liquidation of such assets would not itself cause severe financial hardship, or by cessation of deferrals under the Plan.
